

School Profile: Orchard Ridge Elementary School

Introduction

Orchard Ridge Elementary is a neighborhood school, uniquely situated so students and families can walk to and from school daily. We strive to develop and maintain collaborative partnerships with our families to ensure every student is successful academically, socially and emotionally. We recognize that every child brings their own strengths to our building each day and we want to build on those as well as expand them into other areas of learning. We will actively promote the engagement of your child in their learning by building positive relationships, establishing and maintaining clear expectations, and providing rigorous work for your child's academic and social growth. We keep student learning at the center of all data-based decision making, setting up school wide systems for student success and developing classroom opportunities to meet each student's next level of learning. Examining our current practices with an equity lens this next year will be crucial professional work for Orchard Ridge to improve opportunities for all students. Our staff members bring a lot of energy and passion into our school and classrooms each day so that Orchard Ridge is the school your child wants to be at and you feel confident in their academic and social emotional growth. Together we can!

Strengths

Orchard Ridge staff members are eager to collaborate and utilize innovative ideas to meet students' varied academic and social needs. Our passion for learning transfers to the classrooms, thus engaging students in new learning and creating excitement about learning. We recognize the power of partnerships with our families to ensure success for all of our students.
